Tournament's modus operandi and rules for “U9” Euro Championship Qualification

The tournament will be played according to the rules of the national association.

- Number of Players: 6 field players + 1 goalkeeper / 7 versus 7. Maximum squad size: 14 players.
- players born 2010 or later are eligible to participate.
- Duration of game: 1 x 15 minutes without changing sides. For all games.
- Playing area: length 45 to 50 m x width 28 to 30 m, marked penalty area (10 m), 8m-penalty, Goals: 5x2 meter
- Ball: size 4.
- Offside rule.
- Back pass rule (= goalkeeper is not allowed to pick up back pass balls).
- The goalkeeper is only allowed to pick up the ball inside the penalty area. Further goalkeeper rules according to national association
- Player identity cards are required of all participating players. Players may only participate in the tournament in case of a valid player identity card or passport. Since player identity cards are not common in some countries another identifying document like a passport (necessarily including a photo) can serve as proof of identity. If necessary, or in the case of a protest, identifying documents have to be presented to the tournament's director immediately.

- Guest players are allowed only after confirmation by the organizer.
- There is no limit for the number of substitutions per match but the game must be interrupted for any substitution.
- The non-appearance of a team will be classified with 0:3, except if there is a valid reason (i.e. up to the decision of the tournament's committee).
- Playing equipment: 2 dress kits in different colors must be available. The second named team has to change shirts if team shirts have the same colors.
- The tournament's modus operandi depends on the number of participating teams. Usually 16 -20 teams are competing at a qualification tournament. So it will be played in 4 groups with 4 or 5 teams in each. In the group phase all teams play against each other. The 2 top ranked teams of the group qualify for the quarter finals. The winner teams of the quarter finals qualify for the semi-finals, the loser teams will play for the places 5 to 8. The 3rd and 4th or 5th ranked teams in a group are playing for the places 9 to 16(20). The winner teams of the semi-finals qualify for the final
- After the group stage, penalty shoot-outs will decide the winner immediately after a draw.
- The shoot-out will take place with 3 attempts by different players of each team followed by sudden death (still with different players of each team) if required.
- Scoring: 3 points for win, 1 point for draw, 0 points for loss.
- In situation of equal points in group stage the following order will determine the ranking: 1. Direct duel, 2. Goal difference, 3. Goals scored, 4. Penalty shoot-out with 3 attempts each followed by sudden death if required.
